Focus on Microbiology Education* NEWSMAGAZINE
COPYRIGHT AGREEMENT

Author _____

Name of Work: _____ (the "Work")

To maintain and protect the Society's publications and to further its mission of contributing to Science and Education, ASM requires that the Author sign this copyright agreement if the Work is to be published by ASM in the Focus on Microbiology Education newsmagazine.

Publisher's Agreement. ASM agrees to publish the Work identified above in the Focus on Microbiology Education newsletter, in consideration for this transfer to ASM of all copyrights in and to the Work, and the other provisions of this agreement. It is understood that the Author will receive no royalty or other monetary compensation, but will receive appropriate credit in all ASM reproductions, copies, and publications of the Work.

Author's Agreement and Representations. The Author hereby grants and assigns to ASM, on exclusive basis, all rights under the Copyright Laws of the United States and all foreign countries in and to the above-referenced Work, for the duration of all terms of copyright and any renewals or extensions thereof. This grant includes all derivative, republication, translation, electronic publishing and subsidiary rights of any nature, and in all media or technology, whether such rights and media are now known or hereafter developed. The Author reserves all other proprietary rights, such as patent or trademark rights, if any. The Author warrants that the Work is original and that the Author has full power and authority to grant the rights hereunder. The Author signing below signs for and represents that he or she has been authorized by any and all coauthors to act on their behalf for this purpose, and that he or she is the author or a joint author of the Work, or has been authorized by the copyright owner to enter into this Agreement

Republication. ASM grants to the Author the right of republication of all or portions of this Work in any other publication (including print, CD-ROM, and electronic formats) of which he or she is the author or editor, on the condition that proper credit is given to the original ASM publication and that the republication occurs after the original ASM publication.

Special Notice for U.S. Government Employees. ASM understands that works authored solely by U.S. Government employees within the scope of their employment are not subject to U.S. copyright, and the transfer provision of this Agreement does not apply to any U.S. Government employee who authored or coauthored this Work as a part of his or her employment (who should be identified as such below). If the Work was created pursuant to a U.S. Government contract under which the U.S. Government has publication rights, then the above transfer is made subject to those contract rights. All other provisions of this Agreement apply to U.S. Government employees and contractors.
